

CURRICULUM VITAE

- Marc BOUCHAYER born in 1936 in France ( Grenoble )
- Graduated E N T from the Faculty of Medicine of LYON in 1970
- Appointed Associate Professor – Hospital Specialist in 1970 in Paris
- Practice in private clinic in Lyon from 1970 with activity in microsurgery, mainly in otology and otoneuro-surgery and beginning of phonosurgery in partnership with the phoniatician Guy CORNUT at the same period.
- Carrying out over 30 years of 4.300 phonosurgical operations for dysphonia linked exclusively to benign lesions of the vocal cords.
Histo-pathological classification of congenital lesions of the vocal cords ( 28% of operated cases ) with the development of new surgical techniques and suitable instrumentation.
- Participation in numerous workshops with surgical demonstrations on all continents
- Honored with several international awards :
IALP Prize in 1995 in Cairo
GEORGE DAVEN HOWELLS MEMORIAL Prize in 1999 in London
1st OSKAR KLEINSASSER Prize of the ILS in 2000 in Paris
- Member of several international societies :
BVA, IALP, ELS, COMET
German and Swiss ENT societies
- Cessation of all medical activity since January 2001