

Silvia Capobianco studied Medicine and Surgery in Pavia (Italy), and she is currently working as a resident doctor in the Audiology and Phoniatrics Department at the Pisa University Hospital (Italy). Her main interests include the care of the artistic voice, voice physiology and equilibrium disorders.

She is also a professional singer specialized in the Early Music repertoire and has performed in some of the most important venues and festivals in Europe, such as the Royal Concertgebouw (Amsterdam, the Netherlands), the Berliner Philharmonie (Berlin, Germany), deSingel Festival (Antwerp, Belgium), Utrecht Oude Mouziek (Utrecht, the Netherlands), Festival d'Ambronay (Ambronay, France) and the Valletta International Baroque Festival (Malta).