

Jörg Edgar Bohlender, MD and Clinical Docent

Jörg Edgar Bohlender is otolaryngologist and phoniatician, subspecializing in laryngology, phonosurgery, disorders in professional voice users and swallowing disorders. Since 2008 he is Head of Phoniatics and Speech Pathology, Clinic for Otorhinolaryngology, Head and Neck Surgery, University Hospital Zurich, Switzerland. Studies in history of arts, literature and dramatic theory in Berlin, Germany. He graduated from University Medical Schools in Münster, Erlangen and Charité Berlin, Germany. Since 11 years he established annual multidisciplinary meetings with international speakers focusing on voice and swallowing disorders in Zurich. National and international publications.

Main focuses:

- Diagnostic in voice disorders
- Phonosurgery
- Functional voice problems
- High elite vocal performer
- History of Vocology

Activities:

- President of the Swiss Society of Dysphagie (SGD)
- Past President of the Swiss Society of Phoniatics (SGP)
- Founder of the "Zurich Voice Conferences", "Zurich Dysphagia Conferences" and FEES courses
- Advisory board of "Sprache. Stimme. Gehör"

Zurich 5th October 2019