

Dr. Josef Schlömicher –Thier

Josef Schlömicher-Thier was born 1954 in Styria, Austria and started his musical career in 1990 in Graz in the Ensemble of the Opera in Graz in Don Carlos. He started his Voice Training as a Bariton at the Conservatorium of Music in 1982 and at University of Music and Dramatic Art in Graz in 1986. After finishing his Degree in Medicine at the Karl Franzens University of Graz, he was trained as a General Practitioner in Graz and Leoben and became a Specialist in ENT at the Main Hospital in Salzburg and for occupational Medicine in Vienna. Josef Schlömicher–Thier has the responsibility as a Consultant Doctor of the Salzburg Festival for the Voice Care of the Singers and the Occupational Medicine of the Salzburg Festival. The Focus of Josef Schlömicher-Thier's work is on the Care of the Professional Voice. Since 1996 he run his ENT office and foundet 2015 the International Voice Center Austria.