

After graduating in Osteopathy in 2002 at Istituto Superiore di Osteopatia (ISO) in Milan, and at University of Wales (UK), from 2002 to 2006 she specialized in ENT and Voice disorders through the Professional Programs: ENT & Voice Disorders at Cornell University (NY, USA); Linguistic & Communication at Columbia University (NY USA); Osteopathy in HEENT and Voice Disorders at American Osteopathic College of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology in Chicago (IL, USA).

In 2012 she graduated in Physiotherapy at University of Hertfordshire (UK). International congress speaker, since 2006 she has always practiced clinical practice in Osteopathy applied to clinic and artistic voice disorders.

Since 2017 she is Member of the Collegium Medicorum Theatri (CoMeT).